1. All Company shares are bearer shares.
2. The transformation of bearer shares into registered shares is not allowed.

1. The shares of the Company may be redeemed with the permission of the shareholder through their purchase by the Company (voluntary redemption). Redemption may not be carried out more than once per financial year.
2. The Resolution of the General Meeting on the redemption of shares should describe in detail the legal basis for redemption, the amount of compensation to be paid to the shareholder for the redeemed shares or the justification for redeeming shares without compensation, and the way in which the share capital will be decreased.
3. The Resolution on the redemption of shares may be preceded by an agreement with the shareholder whose shares are to be redeemed. The agreement shall set forth the number of shares to be redeemed and the price for which the shares are to be purchased. The validity of the agreement shall depend on the passage of a resolution by the General Meeting.

IV. BODIES OF THE COMPANY

The following are the bodies of the Company:

1. The Management Board;
2. The Supervisory Board; and
3. The General Meeting.

A. MANAGEMENT BOARD OF THE COMPANY

1. The Management Board of the Company shall be composed of 1 to 7 persons, appointed to a mutual term of office. The term of office of the Management Board shall be three consecutive years.
2. The number of members of the Management Board shall be determined by the Supervisory Board.
3. The Supervisory Board appoints and recalls the President of the Management Board, and at his request shall appoint and recall the remaining members of the Management Board, including those persons serving in the capacity of First Vice President and Vice Presidents of the Management Board, with due regard being given to section 5 and sections 7 to 12, concerning the appointment or recall of an employee-elected member of the Management Board.
4. removed
5. The members of the Management Board, including any such chosen by the employees, may be recalled by the Supervisory Board prior to the expiration of their term, which in no way shall interfere with their rights arising from their employment contract or other legal relationship relating to their functioning as a member of the Management Board. The recall of an employee-elected Member of the Management Board may occur following fulfillment of the conditions specified in sections 11-15. In the place of an employee-elected Member of the Management Board, a new Member of the Management Board shall be elected without unnecessary delay. An employee-elected Member of the Management Board, recalled prior to the expiration of their term, may not run for re-election.
6. The mandate of members of the Management Board shall expire no later than the date the General Meeting accepts the financial statements of the Company for the most recent full financial year in which they served as a member of the Management Board.
7. Elections for an employee-elected Member of the Management Board shall be ordered by a resolution of the Supervisory Board. Simultaneously, the Supervisory Board shall appoint an Electoral Committee among whose responsibilities is the carrying out of elections.

8. The employees of the Company shall announce their candidates for a Member of the Management Board to the Electoral Committee. Said candidacy should be announced and supported by 15% (fifteen percent) of all employees.
9. Elections for an employee-elected Member of the Management Board shall be carried out in general elections, through the direct participation of employees, in secret ballot.
10. Procedures for the carrying out of elections shall be defined by regulations established by the Supervisory Board.
11. Based upon a petition signed by at least 20% (twenty percent) of the employees of the Company, voting may be conducted for the recalling of an employee-elected member of the Management Board.
12. Voting for the recalling of an employee-elected member of the Management Board shall be ordered by the Supervisory Board.
13. Such voting as mentioned in section 12 shall be conducted in accordance with appropriate provisions of the Statutes and the regulation for elections of a member of the Management Board by the employees.
14. The result of elections of an employee-elected member of the Management Board, or the result of voting for their recalling, shall be binding upon the Supervisory Board, as long as in the said voting for either their appointment or recalling at least 50% of the Company's employees have participated.
15. The election and recall of a member of the Management Board chosen by the employees shall require an absolute majority of votes cast.

1. The Management Board of the Company shall manage the Company and represent it in external affairs.
2. The work of the Management Board shall be organized by its President.
3. Any matters involving management of the Company not reserved by law or these Statutes for the General Meeting or the Supervisory Board shall be the responsibility of the Management Board.
4. The presence of at least two-thirds of the Management Board at a meeting shall be required in order for resolutions to be valid. Resolutions of the Management Board shall be adopted by an ordinary majority of votes of those present. In justified circumstances, voting shall be permitted through written means, or through the use of long-distance means of direct communication. In the case of a tie, the President of the Management Board has the deciding vote.
5. The Bylaws of the Management Board shall determine the activities of the Management Board in detail. The Bylaws are adopted by the Management Board and approved by the Supervisory Board.
6. Sections 4 and 5 do not apply to a Management Board consisting of one member.
7. The consent of all the members of the Management Board is required to establish procuration, while procuration may be annulled by any member of the Management Board.

1. Two members of the Management Board acting jointly, or one member of the Management Board acting with the procurist, are authorised to submit declarations on behalf of the Company.
2. If the Management Board consists of one member, such member shall be authorised to submit declarations on behalf of the Company.

1. In a contract between the Company and a member of the Management Board, the Company shall be represented by the Supervisory Board or by a plenipotentiary appointed by resolution of the General Meeting.

2. In a dispute between the Company and a member of the Management Board, the Company shall be represented by the Supervisory Board or by a plenipotentiary appointed by resolution of the General Meeting.

B. SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. The Supervisory Board shall be composed of 7 to 10 persons. The term of office of the Supervisory Board shall last three years. In the case of elections to the Supervisory Board by group voting, the number of members of the Supervisory Board within the aforesaid limit will be set by the General Meeting.
2. The General Meeting shall appoint and recall members of the Supervisory Board for a mutual term of office.
3. The recalling, resignation or death of an employee-elected member of the Supervisory Board shall result in a supplementary election. Such election shall be ordered by the Supervisory Board within 3 weeks.
4. The particular procedure in which employee-elected members of the Supervisory Board are to be elected or recalled, shall be determined in an electoral bylaw adopted by the Supervisory Board.
5. At least two members of the Supervisory Board should be independent members, meeting the following criteria:
 - 1) does not work for the Company, its divisions, or with a related entity of the Company, either as an employee or in any other legal relationship,
 - 2) is not a member of the Supervisory Board or Management Board of an entity related to the Company,
 - 3) is not a partner or shareholder controlling 5% or more of the votes at the General Meeting of the Company or at the General Shareholders Meeting of a related entity,
 - 4) is not a member of the Supervisory Board or Management Board or an employee of an entity controlling 5% or more of the votes at the General Meeting of the Company or at the General Shareholders Meeting of a related entity,
 - 5) is not a direct family member related by blood in an ascending or descending line, a spouse, brother or sister, a parent of a spouse or an adoptee of any of the persons mentioned above in points 1-4.
6. An independent member of the Supervisory Board should meet the criteria for independence defined in sec. 5, throughout his entire tenure. Should the Supervisory Board or Management Board of the Company be informed that an independent member of the Supervisory Board of the Company has ceased during his tenure to meet the criteria for independence, and should this cause the Company to fail to meet the criteria of having at least two independent members, action should be taken to ensure that the said member of the Supervisory Board submit his/her early resignation or that said member is recalled.
7. Prior to being appointed to the Supervisory Board of the Company, a candidate for the position of independent member of the Supervisory Board is required to submit a declaration in writing that he/she meets the criteria for independence defined in sec. 5.
8. A Member of the Supervisory Board should present to the Management Board of the Company information respecting his connections, of an economic, family or other nature which could have an impact on his position, with a shareholder in the possession of shares representing at least 5 % of the number of votes at the General Meeting. This information shall be presented following appointment of the member of the Supervisory Board, as well as during his tenure, should any change to these circumstances occur.

1. The Supervisory Board shall select from among its members a Chairman of the Supervisory Board, his deputy and, if necessary, a Secretary.
2. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall convene meetings of the Supervisory Board and chair them. In case of the expiry of the mandate of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, the said Chairman shall convene and open the following meeting and shall chair the meeting until a new Chairman is elected. If this is not possible, the above-mentioned responsibilities of the Chairman shall be fulfilled by the Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board until the election of a Chairman at the next meeting. Should it also not possible for meetings of the Supervisory Board to be convened and opened by the Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board shall extend invitations to all of the members of the Supervisory Board for a meeting of the Supervisory Board to be held under an altered composition, indicating the time and place of the meeting and the proposed agenda.
3. The Supervisory Board may recall the Chairman, his Deputy and the Secretary at any time.

1. The Supervisory Board should meet when the situation warrants, but in any case no less than once a quarter.
2. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board or his deputy shall also be obliged to convene a meeting of the Supervisory Board on the written request of either the Management Board or of a member of the Supervisory Board. Meetings should take place within two weeks of the request containing the proposed agenda being received by the Chairman.

1. All members of the Supervisory Board must be invited to participate in the meetings of the Supervisory Board in order for its resolutions to be valid.
2. The Supervisory Board shall adopt resolutions by an absolute majority of votes in the presence of at least one-half of the members of the Supervisory Board.
3. Members of the Supervisory Board may participate in the passage of resolutions by providing their vote in writing through another member of the Supervisory Board. However, voting on issues added to the agenda of a Supervisory Board meeting may not be done in writing.
4. The Supervisory Board may also pass resolutions in written form or through the use of long-distance means of direct communication. A resolution passed in this manner shall be valid if all members of the Supervisory Board were informed of the wording of the proposed resolution.
5. The passage of a resolution in the manner prescribed in sections 3 and 4 does not apply to the election of the chairman of the Supervisory Board and his deputy, the appointment, recall and suspension of members of the Management Board from their duties and the lifting of such suspension.
6. The Supervisory Board shall adopt bylaws specifying the manner in which it is to act, and which should be available to the public.

1. The Supervisory Board shall be responsible for constant supervision of the activity of the Company.

2. In addition to matters provided for by these Statutes, the following in particular shall be the responsibility of the Supervisory Board:
 - 1) reviewing the unconsolidated and consolidated financial statements and the report of the Management Board on the activity of the Company and the Capital Group for the given financial year,
 - 2) reviewing the proposals of the Management Board with respect to the distribution of profits or coverage of losses,
 - 3) submitting to the General Meeting an annual written report on the results of the examinations of the documents referred to in points 1 and 2,
 - 4) submitting to the General Meeting annual requests for granting approval of the Management Board with respect to its activity,
 - 5) examining and controlling the activity and financial condition of the Company, and submitting to the Ordinary General Meeting an annual, concise evaluation of the Company situation,
 - 6) choosing an auditor to audit the statements referred to in point 1,
 - 7) suspending from their duties for important reasons some or all of the members of the Management Board,
 - 8) temporarily delegating a member or members of the Supervisory Board to carry out the duties of members of the Management Board who are unable to carry out their duties,
 - 9) establishing the compensation of members of the Management Board, as well as the conditions of other agreements or contracts concluded with them,
 - 10) approving the bylaws of the Management Board of the Company,
 - 11) approving the Company's annual and long-term plans of activity,
 - 12) stating its opinion on any request of the Management Board addressed to the General Meeting,
 - 13) at the request of the Management Board, expressing its consent to:
 - a) the purchase and sale of real estate, of perpetual usufruct or of a stake in real estate (this does not require a resolution of the General Meeting),
 - b) the granting of guarantees and loans to commercial entities in which the Company owns less than 1/3 of the voting rights at the General Meeting of such entities,
 - c) establishing and acceding to commercial partnerships and companies,
 - d) disposing of shares in subsidiaries of the Company,
 - e) establishing branches, companies, representative offices and other organizational or economic entities abroad,
 - f) obtaining or acquiring shares of another Company,
 - g) the establishment and liquidation of foundations,
 - 14) appointing and recalling members of the Management Board, with due regard being given to § 12 of the Statutes of the Company,
 - 15) expressing an opinion on investments by the Company in tangible assets, which meet one of the following conditions:
 - a) investments having a value of more than 10% of the budget for expenditures on investments in tangible assets of the Company for a given financial year,
 - b) investments of more than 5% of the budget for expenditures on investments in tangible assets of the Company for a given financial year, if the investment does not meet the criteria for planned effectiveness in comparison to the accepted rate of return on equity in the Company.

1. The members of the Supervisory Board shall exercise their rights and perform their duties personally.
2. The remuneration of the members of the Supervisory Board shall be determined by the General Meeting. Remuneration is paid on condition the member is present at the Supervisory Board meeting. Remuneration is payable if the Supervisory Board excuses the absence of the member.
3. The remuneration of Supervisory Board members temporarily assigned to carry out the duties of a member of the Management Board shall be determined by a resolution of the Supervisory Board.

C. GENERAL MEETING

1. A General Meeting shall be ordinary or extraordinary.
2. An Ordinary General Meeting shall be convened within 6 months of the end of each financial year.
3. removed
4. removed
5. removed
6. The cancellation of a General Meeting whose agenda contains certain items which were included based on justified requests, or which was convened based on such a request, may only be carried out with the agreement of the requesting parties. In other cases, a General Meeting may be cancelled if its holding meets with significant difficulties due to force majeure or is clearly unjustified.
7. The cancellation of a General Meeting should be carried out in the same manner as it is convened, insuring meanwhile the least negative effects for the Company and its shareholders, and no less than three weeks prior to the initially-scheduled date.
8. A change in the date of a General Meeting should be carried out in the same manner as it is convened, even if the proposed agenda remains unchanged.

1. The General Meeting may adopt resolutions only on items included on the agenda, subject to any exceptions provided for by law.
2. The items on the agenda shall be determined by the Management Board, subject to any exceptions provided for by law.
- 2¹. The State Treasury may convene an Ordinary General Meeting if the Management Board did not convene it within the statutory timeframe and an Extraordinary General Meeting if it considers its convening as warranted.
3. The Supervisory Board and shareholders representing at least 1/20 of the share capital may request the inclusion of certain items on the agenda at the next General Meeting.
4. removed
5. Removal of an item from the agenda or failure to consider an issue placed on the agenda at the request of the shareholders requires the passage of a resolution of the General Meeting, following the earlier-expressed approval of all shareholders present who had put forward the said resolution, and supported by at least 75% of the votes cast at the General Meeting.

§24

General Meetings shall take place either at the Company's registered head office, in Warsaw or in Wrocław.

§25

1. Subject to any exceptions provided for by law, the General Meeting may adopt resolutions if at least 1/4 of the share capital is represented.
2. Unless these Statutes or the law provide otherwise, each share shall entitle its holder to one vote at the General Meeting.
3. removed

§26

1. Resolutions of the General Meeting shall be adopted by an ordinary majority of votes cast unless legal provisions or these Statutes provide otherwise.
2. In circumstances foreseen in art. 397 of the Commercial Partnerships and Companies Code, a resolution to dissolve the Company shall require a 3/4 majority of votes cast.

1. Voting shall be open. Secret ballots shall be ordered for elections and on motions for the recall, suspension of duties, or lifting of such suspension, of members of the bodies of the Company or liquidators of the Company, or for calling them to account, as well as in personal matters. In addition, secret ballots shall be ruled at the request of at least one person of those present authorised to vote.
2. A resolution on a significant change in the scope of the Company's activity shall be adopted by open roll call voting and announced.

1. The General Meeting shall be opened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or his deputy, after which a chairman shall be elected from among persons authorised to vote.
2. The General Meeting shall adopt a bylaw setting forth in detail the procedure in which meetings are to be conducted. The resolution of the General Meeting requires a 3/4 majority of votes cast.
3. Members of the Supervisory Board and members of the Management Board should be present during the General Meeting. This does not include General Meetings whose agendas contain matters which do not require that all members of the Supervisory Board, or all members of the Management Board, be present in order for the General Meeting to be able to discuss them.
4. The Management Board of the Company is obligated to insure the presence of the Company auditor at those General Meetings whose agenda includes a review of Company financial matters.

1. The following are the responsibilities of the General Meeting:
 - 1) examining and approving the report of the Management Board on the Company's activity and the financial statements, including the consolidated financial report of the Capital Group of the Company, for the prior financial year,
 - 2) adopting resolutions on distribution of profits or coverage of losses,

- 3) acknowledging fulfillment of duties performed by members of the bodies of the Company,
 - 4) changing the subject of the Company's activity,
 - 5) amending the Company Statutes,
 - 6) increasing or decreasing the share capital,
 - 7) the manner and conditions for retiring shares,
 - 8) merging, splitting and transforming the Company,
 - 9) dissolving and liquidating the Company,
 - 10) issuing convertible bonds or senior bonds,
 - 11) consenting to the disposal and lease of an enterprise or of an organised part thereof, as well as the attachment of limited property rights to same,
 - 12) all decisions relating to claims for redress of damage suffered during the establishment of the Company, or from management or supervisory activities,
 - 13) purchase of the Company's own shares, which are to be offered to employees or persons who were employed by the Company or by related companies for a period of at least three years,
 - 14) establishing principles for the compensation of members of the Supervisory Board.
2. Apart from the matters referred to in section 1, resolutions of the General Meeting are required for matters specified in the Commercial Partnerships and Companies Code.
 3. With the exception of the responsibilities referred to in section 1, point 3 and point 14, the General Meeting shall carry out the responsibilities referred to in point 1 at the request of the Management Board submitted together with the report or written opinion of the Supervisory Board. The opinion of the Management Board and Supervisory Board should be obtained regarding any request from shareholders in these matters. The absence of the opinion of the Management Board and Supervisory Board shall not prevent a matter from being examined.
 4. The matters set forth in sec. 1 points 6), 8) and 13) require a resolution of the General Meeting adopted by a 3/4 majority of votes cast.

The subject of the Company's activity may be changed without the obligation to purchase shares if a resolution of the General Meeting is adopted by a 3/4 majority of votes cast in the presence of persons representing at least half of the share capital.

V. BOOKS AND ACCOUNTS OF THE COMPANY

The organisation of the Company's business shall be determined in an organizational bylaw adopted by the Management Board.

§32

1. The Company shall keep its accounts in accordance with legal provisions in force.
2. The financial year shall be the calendar year.

1. The Company shall create the following capital and funds:
 - 1) share capital,
 - 2) reserve capital,
 - 3) revaluation reserve capital,

- 4) other reserve capital,
 - 5) company social benefits fund,
 - 6) mine closure fund, and
 - 7) other special funds.
2. The Company may create and dissolve other special funds, at the beginning of, and during, the financial year on the basis of a resolution of the General Meeting.
 3. The Company may use part of the reserve capital in an amount exceeding the value of 1/3 of the share capital to cover shares in the increased share capital or for another purpose specified in a resolution of the General Meeting.

1. Within three months of the end of the financial year the Management Board shall prepare and submit to the Supervisory Board a report on the activity of the Company and the financial statements for the previous financial year.
2. The Supervisory Board is obligated to submit to the Ordinary General Meeting an annual, concise evaluation of the Company situation, which should be included in the Annual Report of the Company and made available to shareholders in sufficient time to enable them to review and evaluate these materials prior to the General Meeting.

1. The General Meeting shall determine how the net profit is to be designated by a resolution.
2. The General Meeting shall make deductions from the profit to the reserve capital in an amount which is at least that required by law until the reserve capital amounts to at least one-third of the share capital.
3. The General Meeting may designate part of the profit for:
 - 1) other capital and funds or other purposes specified in a resolution of the General Meeting, and
 - 2) a shareholders' dividend.
4. The rights date for dividends and the date for payment of dividends shall be set by the General Meeting and announced by the Management Board of the Company. Payment of dividends should commence within two months of the date the resolution on distribution of profits is adopted.
5. The Management Board of the Company is authorised to adopt resolutions in the matter of an interim payment to shareholders on the anticipated dividend at the end of the financial year, if the Company is in the possession of sufficient funds for said payment. The payment of an interim dividend requires the approval of the Supervisory Board.
6. The Company may make an interim payment on the anticipated dividend, if its approved financial statements for the prior financial year show a profit. The interim dividend may represent at most half of the profit earned since the end of the prior financial year, as shown in the financial statements audited by a certified auditor, and increased by the reserve capitals created from profit, which, for the purpose of payment of the interim dividend, may be appropriated by the Management Board, and decreased by uncovered losses and treasury shares.

VI. FINAL PROVISIONS

The Company shall place its announcements on the Company's website as well as in publications required by law.
