

Lech Jaroń

Education:

Graduate of the Faculty of Mining of Wrocław University of Technology.

Post-graduate studies completed in organisation and management and in financial management.

Certified by the State Mining Authority as a Mine Operations Manager.

Entitled by the Minister of the State Treasury to sit on the Supervisory Boards of State-owned companies.

Positions held and professional career:

Forty years experience, including thirty-five at KGHM Polska Miedź S.A.

Has risen through all levels of mine management at KGHM Polska Miedź S.A.

Has held a variety of responsible positions amongst top-level management at KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. and in the KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. Group, i.e.: Technical Director of the Sieroszowice Mine, Managing Director of the Sieroszowice Mine, Managing Director of the Polkowice Mine, Managing Director of the Polkowice - Sieroszowice Mine and President of the Quality Research Center CBJ Sp. z o.o. in Lubin.

Held the position of Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Interferie Sp. z o.o.

Currently employed as the Chief Salt Mining Engineer at the Polkowice - Sieroszowice Mine of KGHM Polska Miedź S.A. Engaged in community work on behalf of the development of mining as a member of the Management Board of the Lubin branch of SITG (Association of Mining Engineers and Technicians).